John, aged 65, thinks to himself “Hmm... what can I do for fun?”

He decides to read a book. John picks up his “Old Person's Primer” controller and reading glasses.

John sits down comfortably, places the controller in his lap, puts on the glasses, and begins.

John selects “Harry Potter” from the library.